CVI-Mastermind_Group [Order_MG]

The CVI-Mastermind Group has un-paralleled advantages that are expressly offered to generate new and brilliant combinations of intellectual capital that can be optimized:

- The main idea with the Mastermind Group is to develop ideal capacity to help individuals more easily fulfill their purpose, work and destiny, by promoting total creative expression, reducing or eliminating limitations, enable more creative time for artistic, scientific, technological and trades related endeavours. Utilizing intellectual capital in a more beneficial and progressive environment with focused energy in a productive, profitable and dynamic enterprise zone to learn, grow and excel personally and professionally in an expanding range of opportunities are all part of our adventurous life plans.
- Our values are with the promotion, development, use, generation and investment of intellectual capital, knowledge, ideas, understanding, skills, wisdom, insight, inventive and innovative genius, personal gifts, inspiration, organization and co-operative genius of leadership, teamwork and natural affinity, combined with an everyday practical life and environment transforming faith and belief system. We acknowledge and promote various types of wealth, personal value as a human in society, participation in any form of enterprise, the manifold dimensions of investing and co-operative co-creation possible by contribution, agreement, action, value and beneficial compensation programs. This is a way of life that anyone can willingly choose to be active in and benefit from an astonishing new reality.
- Developing an environment where people can work together on common goals takes time to build but the rewards are worth it. Being more creative, productive and profitable leads to greater success, more challenge, personal and work group or team rewards. We believe this is an eminently worthwhile step in the right direction in creating greater opportunity, wealth and quality of life for all that choose to advance forward and go in the direction of their dreams and action plans in a more supportive and amplified environment.
- We believe and offer the possibility of action for what you know and transforming that into an alternative reality that you can choose in a way that works for and benefits you, here and now, or at any time in the future. This exists now, it's available.
- We believe that the quality of life may improve as we each capitalize on our brilliant faculties of creative imagination, skill, expertise and passion for our true hearts desire, with our personal intellectual capital and the vast resources at our command.
- The probability to generate a much higher degree of enthusiasm and interest exists with the Mastermind Group, with great potential for involvement, challenge, reward and fun.
- Freedom of choice in available options of being, doing and having make life a whole lot more interesting, purposeful and meaningful in everyday living, expressing the best of who we are in dedicated service to society, civilization, industry, profession, relationships and individuality that is useful and beneficial in every way and exceed mainstream routines.
- Our expectations include providential ideals and shared vision, to literally capitalize on an existing knowledge, skill and creative base and more fully benefit from practical experiences and realities. Even if a person is not doing their ideal work right now, if the consciousness and true hearts desire exists for specific endeavours, the intention, focus, belief and applied energy and enthusiasm is essential escape velocity material to make that purpose a reality.

- We also believe that, in addition to enabling increased individual and group perspective and awareness of total creative capacity, value and potential, greater energy and passion may be channelled in a positive constructive enterprise or endeavour, in forms of expression and combinations that one or many may have never thought of or had the option to consider.
- Optimizing value in creating greater potential in organizations, continues to develop positive, interesting and mutually beneficial relationships and results in more natural and ideal types of intellectual capital environments. The thrill of feeling really alive with all the possibilities, challenges and reward from doing those things one really loves and is just brilliant at, is a lot like finding something more up to speed! Now that's more like what we had in mind all along eh! Are you in the illuminated and enlightened zone of all possibilities?
- A new operating system is available with the CVI-Mastermind Group. This exceeds the often imposed "everything you do belongs to the company" operating control system, and works to create an un-inhibited environment where amazing combinations of inventive and organizational genius can be directed to create wealth on an unprecedented scale. Naturally, we are aware of industry practice, proprietary expertise, trade, technological, business, financial and official secrets, and recognize the inherent provisions of these endeavours, notwithstanding conventional formulas, we press onward without limitation. Trading time for money is ok, but why not kick it up a notch or two? (After all your personal super computer is maybe 100 billion neurons or so, each capable of processing 100 million bits of information per second and that is parallel computing with such a massive sensory array and multi-dimensional energy system that most people have no idea about. This makes the latest most advance computer almost nothing.)
- The Mastermind Group endeavour is beneficial for pre-organization, initial organization and growth phases of an enterprise for those who might like or prefer the opportunity to be involved with a new venture, a brand new company, a vision of compelling, exciting and inspirational possibilities, with programs, projects and products that really capture the imagination. This is like a sign up list to being more involved at various levels depending on ability, time resources and other factors.
- People generate value with their intellectual capital and personal genius that is focused individually and in co-operative group effort that is goal and mission directed with a thoughtful action plan. This can include intellectual capital, financial & non-financial investment contributions. This goes beyond investing time, as many brilliant strokes of genius happens in a flash and the value can be worth a great deal, right?
- Alternative futures include: initial organizations, business combinations, integrated business units, strategic enterprise development, investments and acquisitions, joint ventures, technology and product co-development; this also has provisions for various compensation concerning Personnel Recruiting,
- Personnel options are available for: executive and director positions, financial management and council, chief scientists, engineers, factory organization and production experts, human resource development and management, professional services and advisory, marketing and sales genius people in addition to all types of skilled trades, technical advisory, production and various types of personnel, client and customer development, contract procurement, government, legal and technical advisory, technology and process advisory, business network asset optimization, demographic and market specialists, personnel, prototype, product development, design engineering and presentation work and much more. This all needs to be emphasized, we all can do a lot better than we are. This is like an under valued or under performing stock, asset or resource that all we need to do is direct it, give it a challenge, accept that challenge for ourselves and never look back.

- Non-financial contributions are assets such as intellectual capital personified by you, physical assets, time, valuable intangible contributions that may be assigned a financial value, that is translated into common or preferred shares, units or other useful innovative securities, including equal asset values, by mutual agreement. Be compensated and enjoy the rewards.
- Intellectual Capital Options and development can work independently or inter-dependently with financial investment contributions, removing limitations that may exist and provide the member the option of personal discretionary allocation of financial resources that are most beneficial and in accordance with personal values, priorities, needs and available options. This means more practical freedom of choice which is important to everyone of us.
- Intellectual capital can be directed to separate ownership and control structures, entities and corresponding securities, documentation or agreements for ultimate asset protection and wealth management and new wealth generation. Make it, protect it, keep it and manage it.
